DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- 1). What's the difference between exercising the spiritual gift of evangelism and the call to bear witness to the world?
- 2). Does your story (God's story of salvation in you) include both what the Lord has done and the Lord's mercy? Why are both important?
- 3). Do you find it easy/difficult/natural/awkward to share your story?
- 4). In Matthew 5:14-16, Jesus tells us to let our light shine. What does it look like in our lives to do what Jesus is telling us to do - namely, to do good works for others to see?
- 5). How do we make the connection between the good that people see in us and the goodness of God?
- 6). The world is quick to detect hypocrisy in Christ followers. How does this affect the telling of our story and how do we guard against it in our own lives?

7). Who in your circle might be the one who needs to hear your story?

8). How does our daily behavior strengthen or weaken our witness? What can we do to challenge and encourage each other as God unfolds His story in us?
