1.13.19 • STEVE • HOPE FOR OUR RELATIONSHIPS

BOTTOM LINE

God is committed to restoration in our broken relationships.

KEY VERSES

Luke 15:11-32

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What was your major takeaway from the message this morning?
2. The parable identifies three main characters: the fool, the father and the firstborn.
  - When have you played the role of the prodigal (a.k.a the fool)? What was the result?
  - When have you played the role the firstborn, resenting others who refuse to follow the rules?
3. Do you have any current relationships that are broken in your home or life? If so, how you can take the posture of the father?
4. What might it look for you to believe, in hope, for a breakthrough?
5. Even though the young son made destructive choices, the father still blessed him (spoke words of life to him). Can you pray blessing over people in your life who are making poor choices? Will you?
