Jeremiah 17:9–10a

The heart is deceitful above all things and beyond cure. Who can understand it? I the Lord search the heart and examine the mind...

NAOS

The naos is the innermost part of the temple, where the cult statue was placed. It is a rectangular room, usually with a high ceiling and a floor of marble or other precious stones. The naos is usually the most ornate part of the temple, with a richly decorated facade and a large entrance. In this case, the naos is a simple rectangular room, about 10 meters long and 5 meters wide. It is located in the center of the temple, between the two main columns. The floor is made of large, square tiles, and the walls are made of stone. There are no windows or doors visible on the exterior of the naos. The ceiling is made of wood, and there are some decorative elements on the walls. The naos is a very important part of the temple, and it is usually the most well-preserved part of the building. In this case, the naos is in good condition, and it is possible to see the original floor and walls. The naos is a very interesting part of the temple, and it is worth visiting. It is a good example of the architecture of the time, and it shows the importance of the cult statue in the religion of the people who built the temple. Revelation 3:14

To the angel of the church in Laodicea write:

These are the words of the Amen, the faithful and true witness,
the ruler of God's creation.

JESUS IS THE

1. Amen

For no matter how many promises God has made, they are “Yes” in Christ. And so through him the “Amen” is spoken by us to the glory of God. —2 Corinthians 1:20

2. Faithful and True

3. Ruler of God’s Creation

I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End. —Revelation 22:13

Colossians 1:15-17

The Son is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation. For in him all things were created: things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or powers or rulers or authorities; all things have been created through him and for him. He is before all things, and in him all things hold together.

Revelation 3:15-16

I know your deeds, that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish you were either one or the other! So, because you are lukewarm—neither hot nor cold—I am about to spit you out of my mouth.

Revelation 3:17-18

You say, 'I am rich; I have acquired wealth and do not need a thing.' But you do not realize that you are wretched, pitiful, poor, blind and naked. I counsel you to buy from me gold refined in the fire, so you can become rich; and white clothes to wear, so you can cover your shameful nakedness; and salve to put on your eyes, so you can see.

Revelation 3:19

Those whom I love I rebuke and discipline. So be earnest and repent.

Romans 7:18-20

For I know that good itself does not dwell in me, that is, in my sinful nature. For I have the desire to do what is good, but I cannot carry it out. For I do not do the good I want to do, but the evil I do not want to do—this I keep on doing. Now if I do what I do not want to do, it is no longer I who do it, but it is sin living in me that does it.

Romans 7:21–24

So I find this law at work: Although I want to do good, evil is right there with me. For in my inner being I delight in God's law; but I see another law at work in me, waging war against the law of my mind and making me a prisoner of the law of sin at work within me. What a wretched man I am! Who will rescue me from this body that is subject to death?

Romans 7:21–25

So I find this law at work: Although I want to do good, evil is right there with me. For in my inner being I delight in God's law; but I see another law at work in me, waging war against the law of my mind and making me a prisoner of the law of sin at work within me. What a wretched man I am! Who will rescue me from this body that is subject to death? Thanks be to God, who delivers me through Jesus Christ our Lord!

Ezekiel 11:19–20

I will give them an undivided heart and put a new spirit in them; I will remove from them their heart of stone and give them a heart of flesh. Then they will follow my decrees and be careful to keep my laws. They will be my people, and I will be their God.

Ezekiel 36:26

I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit in you; I will remove from you your heart of stone and give you a heart of flesh.

Revelation 3:20

Here I am! I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in and eat with that person, and they with me.

Romans 8:1-4

Therefore, there is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus, because through Christ Jesus the law of the Spirit who gives life has set you[a] free from the law of sin and death. For what the law was powerless to do because it was weakened by the flesh, God did by sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh to be a sin offering. And so he condemned sin in the flesh, in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fully met in us, who do not live according to the flesh but according to the Spirit.

NEW JOURNEY

Do you feel the "Amen", the "Faithful & True" speaking to you this morning? It is because He loves you and He wants what is best for you.

Change comes from a partnership with God, His Spirit working in us to give us the power and the will to transform us from the inside and for us day by day to following the will of the Spirit.

It is a journey that begins with one step and continues one day at a time.
