1. What is one area of your live you tend to be less proactive and more passive? What can you do to change that?
2. Under the banner of “protector,” what does a normal week look like for you when it comes to spiritual warfare? Do you feel under attack recently? How do you fight those battles spiritually and how do you fight for your family spiritually?
3. One thing we discussed on Sunday under the topic of “provision” was providing not just physically or monetarily but emotionally. How are you doing providing safe emotional spaces for you family and friends? How could you improve in this area?
