Questions:

1. What current role/responsibility has God given you as your "staff" that you need to be faithful with? How are you doing with that responsibility? Are there any areas you feel like you can improve?
2. David used his spare time to become an expert slinger. Instead of a harmful habit, he had a healthy hobby. How are you spending your free time? What are some of the healthy hobbies you currently enjoy? Are there any you want to pickup in the near future and what's stopping you from starting now? Are there currently any harmful habits you need to stop or let go of in this season?
3. What is a giant you are facing right now that needs to be addressed in your life? How could facing that giant bring about peace in your life?
4. What are some practical ways you could individually be a peacemaker at Central and in Holland/your home town?
