

PSALM 130

CRAIG REES

God Hears

Out of the depths I cry to you, Lord;
Lord, hear my voice.

Let your ears be attentive
to my cry for mercy.

Psalm 130:1–2

How far is shouting distance when it comes to crying out to God? How far away can we be for Him to hear cries stemming from deep emotional anguish?

Does he who fashioned the ear not hear?
Does he who formed the eye not see?

Psalm 94:9

God Forgives

If you, Lord, kept a record of sins,
Lord, who could stand?

But with you there is forgiveness,
so that we can, with reverence, serve you.

Psalm 130:3–4

God Comes

I wait for the Lord, my whole being waits,
and in his word I put my hope.

I wait for the Lord
more than watchmen wait for the morning,
more than watchmen wait for the morning.

Psalm 130:5-6

God calls us to expect His coming, not simply to wait for it.

God Redeems

Israel, put your hope in the Lord, for with the Lord is unfailing love
and with him is full redemption.

He himself will redeem Israel
from all their sins.

Psalm 130:7–8

1 John 1:8-2:2

If we claim to be without sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness. If we claim we have not sinned, we make him out to be a liar and his word is not in us. My dear children, I write this to you so that you will not sin. But if anybody does sin, we have an advocate with the Father—Jesus Christ, the Righteous One. He is the atoning sacrifice for our sins, and not only for ours but also for the sins of the whole world.
