

Spend Your Strength

— Toran Scott

Would you rather

- Be without elbows or be without knees?
- Never be able to speak again or always have to say everything that is on your mind?
- Only be able to whisper or only be able to shout?
- Have legs as long as your fingers
Or fingers as long as your legs?

Philippians 2:5-11

pg. 1179

"I was not so afraid of going as I was of coming back. I was at the top of my profession; I could do anything I wanted. If I went overseas for three or four years to work for some little Christian group, I was sure I would come back to a crappy job, work with crappy people, live in a crappy house, and wear crappy slacks as I drink my crappy coffee while driving my crappy car."

Haugen, Gary A. (2009). Just Courage: God's Great Expedition for the Restless Christian

1. Comfort: the state of contented well-being. And we know what this is about; a big TV, a nice couch, air conditioning, a vanilla latte.
2. Security: freedom from danger.
3. Control: having the power over circumstances and events to achieve a desired outcome.
4. Success: the appearance of wealth and the high regard of your peers.

What is on your scale?

You were not created for safety,
you were created for bravery.
You were saved to spend your strength.
